

On Friday 11th May, SISSA opened its doors to Trieste organizing several events for schools and public: lectures, exhibitions, concerts and games. The theme of the day was "The sound, the hearing and the music", three elements that are representative of the topics studied at the School: neuroscience, mathematics and physics.

A short video sums the day. Enjoy!