

30 July - 4 August 2012

The primary goal of the School will be to present all physics fields with relevance for the technologies of energy production, conversion, transmission and savings. Their potential will be presented but also the need for more research and development to fully unfold it will be indicated. For this purpose, basic lectures and topical seminars will be presented by specialists in their field.

Villa Monastero - Varenna, Lake Como

DOWNLOAD > Official Announcement