

"Cross-Correlating Cosmic Fields" is an important workshop on astrophysics to be held in Shanghai.

The workshop will cover:

- current and planned datasets for correlation analysis
- measured correlations: past, planned, and prospects for future
- theoretical predictions for measurements
- cosmological meaning of measured correlations
- statistical, data analysis, and modeling techniques

More information on the official website .