The Courses can be accessed, having passed an entrance exam, by candidates of any age and citizenship with a “Laurea Specialistica/Magistrale” or an equivalent academic title obtained abroad, recognized suitable by the Admission Committee.

The academic title must be held by the date of enrolment in the PhD course under penalty of forfeiture of admission to the course. However, enrolment must be completed by the end of the month of the beginning of the course.

The call for applications, in Italian and English language, is issued by a Director's Decree and advertised for at least thirty days on the School's website on the Euraxess website and on the MUR (Ministry of University and Research) website.

PIAO: definire obiettivi, target e indicatori per lo sviluppo di un'area della Scuola

Assicurazione qualità del dottorato di ricerca

Strumenti e applicativi informatici a supporto delle decisioni strategiche in tema di personale

The entrance exam, that can be provided in-person or online, aims to ascertain a student's suitability for scientific research, as well as knowledge of the English language, and consists in the evaluation of his/her titles, and a written and/or oral test as indicated in the call for application.

For the assessment, the Committee has 100 points, 10 of which are for academic titles, 40 for the written test and 50 for the oral test, or 30 for academic titles and 70 for the single oral or written test.

Upon request of the Teaching Board, the call for application may provide for a different distribution of scores. Each stage of the procedure is understood to have been passed with a minimum score of 7/10 of the score given to that test. Eligibility is achieved by passing all the tests. Upon completion of the evaluation of each test, the committee shall make the results public.

Candidates with exceptional qualifications coming from countries not belonging to the European Union may be admitted to the Ph.D. Courses by academic records only through specific call for application. Students admitted based on the procedures envisaged by this paragraph must in any case take a qualification examination at the end of the first year, according to the rules of the Teaching Board.

Within the framework of agreements as well as national and international collaboration projects, specific admission procedures and organizational arrangements appropriately agreed upon between the participating institutions may also be provided. Upon proposal by the Teaching Board, the Academic Senate may acknowledge the studies and research carried out at other Institutions by candidates who have passed their admission examinations, admitting them to the second year of the Ph.D. directly.

The image shows two handwritten signatures. The first is in black ink and appears to be 'Oll'. The second is in blue ink and is more stylized, possibly reading 'Oll' with a large flourish above it.

Possibili azioni per valorizzare e sviluppare il carattere internazionale della Scuola

Strumenti e applicativi informatici a supporto delle decisioni strategiche in tema di governance

Courses include a first mandatory training activity period, lasting at least six months, and a second period dedicated to research and specialized training activities. Activities are carried out in English. Teaching activities are disciplined by internal regulations of each Course, in accordance with the terms of Article 3 Paragraph 7.

Access to individual didactic courses may be allowed to a selected and limited number of students from Italian and foreign universities, such as not to prejudice the functionality of the teaching activities and facilities of the School, upon the proposal of the Course Holder subject to the approval of the Ph.D. course coordinator. Access to teaching activities may also be provided under specific agreements.
